WILLIAMS. Percival Clement Angel Hotel, Bridge Street NORTHAMPTON

Percival Clement Williams was the Proprietor of the Angel Hotel situated in Bridge Street, Northampton and for the benefit of his patrons he provided a horse bus service between the Hotel and the Castle Station. To legitimise his operation, Williams applied to Northampton Borough Council for a Hackney Carriage Licence which was duly granted for the period 12th July 1927 to 25th March 1928. The service may not have been economical to provide as no further licence applications were made.
