UNITED COUNTIES OMNIBUS & ROAD TRANSPORT CO. LTD.

1 High Street, (176586)

WELLINGBOROUGH

The United Counties Omnibus & Road Transport Company Limited was incorporated on 1st September 1921 to acquire the assets of the Wellingborough Motor Omnibus Company Limited from 24th September 1921. It took over 37 running omnibuses and continued trading until 20th September 1933 when the name of the company was changed to "United Counties Omnibus Company Limited".

Shortly before the Company changed its title, the registered office was transferred from 1 High Street, Wellingborough – the premises of Messrs. Burnham, Son and Lewin, the Company's Solicitors – to Finedon Road, Irthlingborough, which was United Counties' main garage and office.

Readers are referred to the following publication by the author of this series for a more detailed insight into the above company.
