ALLURED. John Wm Henry 28 Cambridge Street WELLINGBOROUGH

It is not certain that John Allured was ever a bus operator or whether he just acted as a booking agent for a third party. Essentially Allured was a tobacconist occupying shop premises at 28 Cambridge Street, Wellingborough.

The sole snippet of information suggesting he may have operated a bus or charabanc in 1920 comes from the advertisement posted in the Kettering Evening Telegraph of Saturday 22nd May 1920 in connection with a Whit-Monday trip to Peterborough via Stamford, Burghley House and Crowland.
