CARLEY. William Austin Talbot Hotel Oundle

Minimal information has survived on the activities of William Carley of Oundle but it is known that he operated a 25-horsepower Vulcan which was new on 11th March 1918 when it was registered in Leicestershire as AY 770. Carley bought it about a year-and-a-half later on 19th August 1919 and probably used it for private hire purposes only. No information has come to hand to suggest William Carley operated for more than a year or two, or that he ever operated other public conveyances.
