Please note:

This event is free for members and their guests. There is no requirement to book in advance and you can board at Chelmsford, Maldon, Colchester and Clacton. If you wish to join anywhere else en route, notification is required to andrewgipson@btinternet.com by no later than 31 July. Should you wish to make a voluntary donation towards the cost of this event, please do so on the day to Andrew Gipson.

Transfer between the buses will be available at Colchester and Clacton. All timings are approximate and subject to traffic conditions on the day. Members and their guests travel at their own risk and we regret these heritage vehicles are not wheelchair accessible.
