TOMLIN. George WOOTTON

Only the briefest of details are known of the activities of George Tomlin of Wootton but in about June 1925 he bought a Chevrolet, described as a coach but more likely to have been a bus, which was duly registered NH 6420. With this vehicle Tomlin ran a bus service between Wootton, Hardingstone and Northampton, terminating at the Knightley Arms in Commercial Street.

It may be that in 1926 George Tomlin had to remove from the Knightley Arms, as in April he applied to Northampton County Borough Council Watch Committee for permission to ply for hire with his twenty-seat saloon from Bridge Street and Commercial Street.

George Tomlin did not survive to run buses in the post-Road Traffic Act. 1930 scenario but his Chevrolet lasted until November 1933 and had no further owner. Probably it was used as a goods vehicle in its latter years.
